ARTEMEST

For the third year running, Artemest enlisted more Vanguard favourite interior designers to use its luxe and directional products to turn a stately apartment into a playpen of contemporary design. Brigatte Romanek set a table for feasting, Champalimaud Design laid the stage for a bedroom (which was a perfect bar for the after-hours party) and Simone Haag set the tone with this foyer, a trove of curves, retro futurism and proof that the 'unexpected red theory' continues to shine. Terry coffee table by Giannella Ventura; Cleo chandelier; Panero 1971 table lamp by Cini Boeri; Kyl couch, all Artemest.
